"Blithe Spirit" to Life

"Whodunit?" Edith, the maid, proves to be a determining factor in solving Charles' dilemma.

"We can all have quite a jolly time," suggests Charles as he adapts to his new role as an "astral bigamist."

Charles thinks that Elvira is merely a figment of his imagination — but he seems to be enjoying her company.

Hard work, diaphragmatic breathing, articulation. Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers. Phew! A babbling Mrs. Bradman (Treva Whitlock), An astonishing Arcati (Dorothy Negovetich), A confounded Charles (Mark Kobli), An effervescent Edith (Cynthia Augustyn), A belligerent Mr. Bradman (John Protolipac), A rebellious Ruth (Bonnie Corondan), An enchanting Elvira (Patty Parks). Seven amateurs worked hard to present a professional performance. ## Grammar, diction, and writing practiced

Bob Mustafa portrays Governor Whitcomb in an energetic book review.

Mary Liz O'Donnell and Jim Sanders list figures of speech in English grammar class.

The use of approved library books in Miss Nicolini's ninth grade English class is compulsory.

in English classes

The main goal of the English department is to educate students in expressing themselves through communication. Reading, writing, and grammar are taught through a conservative approach. A new program in speed reading was initiated second semester. Learning is on an individual basis, with facilities available during all periods. Playreading, world theatre, and journalism have been dropped from the curriculum with the hope of incorporating the main ideas into basic English classes.

Diagraming sentences is a routine procedure in English Composition as shown by Jeff Blahunka.

Comically displaying the consequences of a dunce, Bob White relaxes after taking a Rhetoric exam.

Languages link

Spanish students Paul Ortiz and Sue Rokosz view the breaking of the pinata at the Spanish Club Christmas Party.

Reciting a Spanish proverb to an eager second year Spanish class is sophomore Phil Mateja.

Mr. Taylor's fourth year Spanish students take time out of studies to listen to recordings.

Upon entering first year, Spanish "alumnos" display traditional sombreros to fellow students.

spanish, german cultures

Distant people and places of the world are discovered through language courses offered at Whiting. Variety in means of presentation through films, hand puppets, and travel posters make learning a foreign language interesting to all students.

Both Spanish and German I and II introduce the student to the basic reading and speaking concepts in these languages stress the culture of the people and the usage of their language.

Using good German grammar, Bob White gives an interesting report on his Christmas vacation.

Second year German student, Marc Mustafa, illustrates grammar concepts at the board.

Diligently dissecting an unknown creature is Joe Stefanich.

Advanced Chemistry students prepare to "blow up" Mrs. Gergel's lab.

Elements, atoms

The quest for knowledge goes on as curious Whiting students seek to discover the answers in science.

General science courses introduce junior high pupils to the various branches of science.

In the biology classroom, students discover the secret of life through the help of a microscope.

Accustomed to common scientific jargon, students analyze the effects of chemistry on daily living.

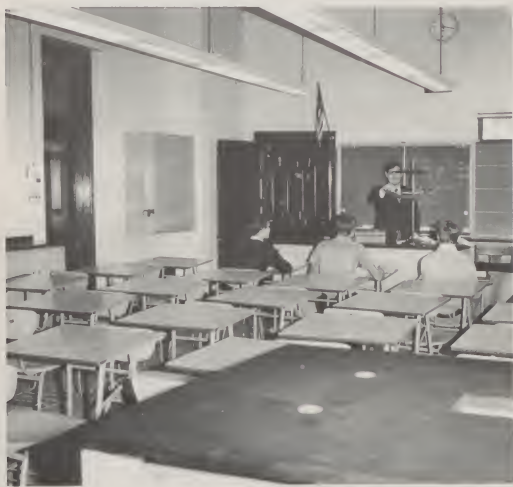

The course in physics gives interested seniors an opportunity to apply principles of matter in motion.

Kevin Hart compares his health illustrations to those of Kathy McHale.

and molecules fascinate science students

Mr. Sorota lectures to "all" his physics students.

John Protolipac and Tim Macko demonstrate the procedure of distillation of water to Sandy Stefanich.

Social studies classes delve into past, present

Four ambitious students debate the topic of lowering the voting age to eighteen.

Mr. King battles the opposite sex on the question of the Women's Liberation Movement.

Cyndi Dugan points out to John Heyden, Paul Seman and Steve Moskalick the cities in crisis.

and future

This year the social studies department, headed by Mrs. Marie Lentvorsky, added more electives to the basic program. The first-year civics class was enlivened by student debates under the direction of Mr. King. For sophomore students, maps and films brought to life the picturesque stories of the world. Variety on the third and fourth year levels make it possible for a student to complement requirements with any of three electives — sociology, psychology, or a course in values and issues.

Mr. Krueger proves to senior government students that his class can be enjoyable as well as profitable.

Mrs. Lentvorsky reads the projector for U.S. History class.

Sociology students participate in an informal discussion of major world problems.

Students prepare

A variety of business courses offered at WHS prepare students for practical application in college and the professional world.

Typing I and II emphasized speed and accuracy by encouraging errorless typing.

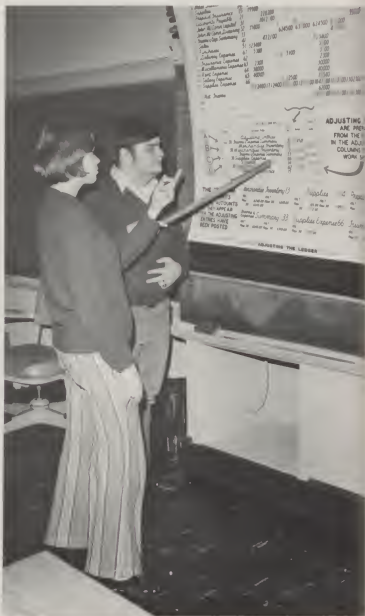

Speed writing was the main goal of all Shorthand I and II students. An adept graduate can obtain a position as a successful stenographer.

Preparing financial statements became second nature to those enrolled in bookkeeping.

Office practice students endeavor to improve their business skills by practicing on the calculators.

Discussing modern bookkeeping methods in Mr. Faulkner's class are Jenny Polak and Patti Oster.

Bruce Adams shows Kathy Bachi, Bette Bercik and Chris Jansky the steps to good typing.

Mr. Turner demonstrates how to clean the typewriter to interested students.

Home ec brings girls closer to the future

There's more to education than just reading, writing, and 'rithmetic. This common sense philosophy is illustrated by participants in all home economics classes. Perfection in sewing and cooking is stressed by Mrs. Wagner.

A mouth-watering cake or handmade dress gives a sense of accomplishment to the well-rounded future homemaker. The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Test is administered each year to interested seniors under the supervision of this department.

Clean up after preparing a delicious meal isn't always strenuous work for Mary Ann O'Drobinak.

Gerry Voight and Paula Murin prove stitching on the machine isn't the first step in standard sewing operations.

Laura Gasco and Nina Janik "load-up" on ingredients for an enticing meal.

Setting the print for the TATTLER is done carefully by Jim Kinchloe in print shop.

Joel Ciers decides to remodel a worn out chair in advanced woodshop.

Shops offer novice craftsmen the basics

"It's a man's world." A new school policy initiated this year as of the fall semester restricts females from trespassing into the forbidden region of industrial arts.

The creative results of woodshop and plastic's students are all products of masculine efforts.

Mechanical drawing and machine shop offer a basis for the future careers of many Whiting boys.

Industrial arts offers a well-rounded boy a means of expression in a masculine fashion.

Working with the grinder in machine shop is Kenny Edwards.

Mr. Rebey has Herman Cornelius and Ron Lingway produce a geometric construction in mechanical drawing class.

Studio workshops benefit art students.

With the help of Mrs. Demkovich's guiding hand, art students delicately paint their fine ceramic pieces.

Shaping sawdust and wheat paste sculptures are five ambitious junior art students.

Mrs. Demkovich stressed an awareness of one's environment to eager art students at WHS. All classes are held as a studio workshop, where students practice while they learn. First year classes concentrated on practicing the fundamentals. Advanced art students are free to explore any special area. The advanced art class project is to create a new mural representing the various activities around WHS. All students took advantage of the new enameling kiln to finish their clay creations.

Interesting creations can be produced with a few strips of paper and scissors as proved by artistic females.

Spirited boys trim the Christmas tree for Art Club.

Art Club students gaily decorate halls

The Art Club, directed by Mrs. Demkovich, brightened the otherwise bare halls of WHS throughout the year. The most outstanding project sponsored annually by club members in conjunction with art classes was setting the Christmas scene around Whiting. Periodic hall displays and scenery for the Spring musical were big requirements, yet always met by the active members. As a reward for their efforts, all members were invited to attend a field trip to the University of Illinois and the Chicago Art Institute.

Joyce Demkovich, Jenny Polak, and Elena Rewers decorate tree.

Easing the mental strain in his senior math class, Joe Perz uses the adding machine

In Mr. Allen's trigonometry class, Jerry Oblon "girl watches" through intricate surveying equipment.

Equations, theorems

General business and business math emphasized the basic principles of the business world.

Pre-algebra helped prepare students for their future plans in the college prep curriculum.

Algebra students learned to substitute variables for numbers and geometry enthusiasts dealt with theory and figures in space.

Studying and inventing number systems was the task of advanced algebra students, while senior math was based on calculus and trigonometry.

Mark Meyers and Allan Etheridge tackle a long division problem in Mr. Turner's general business course.

A difficult problem compels a group of Algebra students to seek some helpful advice from Mr. Laub.

Geometry might be considered a "big" problem for some of the students as shown by the immense size of the slide rule.

The purpose of the Student Council is to better the relationship between the administration and students and to improve the school situation. This year Mr. Krueger became the Student Council's new sponsor.

The Council has again passed the dress code, where girls are allowed to wear slacks. It has also innovated the practice of sponsoring a fan bus to every away game. The Council has also promised to sponsor a dance after every home game.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS — Seated: John Wolfe, President; Standing: Maureen Dickens, Secretary; Carol Platek, Vice-President; Mr. Glenn Krueger, Sponsor; John Protolipak, Treasurer.

Sponsoring buses to away games is a Student Council Activity.

Entertainment is provided by Jackie Burosh for the initiation.

Refreshments are served at the conclusion of the initiation.

Future Teachers initiate new members

The F.T.A. field trip proved to be a rewarding one. The F.T.A. members along with the German Club went to see Tora, Tora, Tora in Chicago. The F.T.A. provided the bus transportation with its success from the profits made by the selling of taffy apples. The primary function of the F.T.A. is to give its members the opportunity to cadet teach. Cadet teaching was done by the juniors and seniors in the Primary-McGregor Buildings.

F.T.A. OFFICERS — Standing: S. Tenorio, Treasurer; K. Dudzik, Vice-President; Mrs. J. DePeugh, Sponsor; D. Ragland, President; N. Wacławek, Secretary. Kneeling: M. Choltys, Social Chairman; C. Jansky, Taffy Apple Chairman.

A modern dance skit is done by Janice Gyure and Sue Grabovac.

Senior Sue Stasko gives freshman Peggy Ceiz a few tips.

Girls' club motto is friendship

An annual invitation is extended to all girls of Whiting High School to join the Girls' Club, sponsored by Mrs. Marie Lentvorsky.

Senior girls assumed the role of "big sister" to apprehensive freshmen at the Big Sister Little Sister Party held this year in November.

Other activities of this club include the preparation of a Mother's Day Tea, annually held in May.

At these functions performing members can express themselves through individual and group acts.

GIRLS' CLUB OFFICERS — Top: Mrs. Lentvorsky, Sponsor; C. Michalak, President; S. Brzycki, Vice President; E. Rosendo, Secretary; T. Hrinyo, Treasurer.

National Honor Society initiates seven

To be accepted as a member of the National Honor Society is a privilege as well as an honor. Twice a year students are chosen on the basis of character, scholarship, achievement, and service — the four cardinal points of the society.

Deserving seniors were initiated at an official ceremony held January 20, in the school cafeteria.

Outstanding juniors became members after a rigorous initiation, traditionally held during the last week of May.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICERS — Mrs. Lentvorsky, sponsor; D. Ragland, Vice-President; G. Thomas, Social Chairman; R. Laub, President; C. Piatek, Secretary; J. Piatek, Treasurer.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY MEMBERS — C. Thomas, C. Piatek, J. Piatek, R. Laub, J. Wolfe, D. Ragland, P. Krizo, V. Stolman, S. Mentink, K. Dudzik, M. Sabol.

School spirit is instilled by Booster Club

BOOSTER CLUB OFFICERS: Standing: J. Gyure, Vice-President; Mrs. Rader, Sponsor; K. Jansky, President; Sitting: C. Minchna, Secretary; M. Zorich, Treasurer.

The Booster Club at WHS, sponsored by Mrs. Rader, does much more than just supply paint, brushes, and paper for enthusiastic sign painters. This year, in place of the homecoming bonfire, an organized outdoor pep assembly featured floats, the band, and a "spirit" talk by Coach Zubeck. The Homecoming parade, and Sweetheart dance was managed by the Booster Club. Money-raising projects included the traditional sectional derby sale and the "Oiler license plate" sale.

Six girls display their pride of being OILERS.

Oiler fans display school spirit with "Clap, Stomp, Holler."

A people-packed entrance assures the Booster Club that their dance will be a success.

The annual Homecoming Parade, held this year in October, is sponsored by the Booster Club.

Yearbook reflects 1970-71 activities.

Gail Thomas and Vanessa Stolman are the co-editors of 1971.

S. Stasko, M. Baker, S. Mentink, and C. Lepacek work hard to meet a deadline.

N. Drewniak, M. Rosendo, and N. Wacławek are co-editors of '72.

Plans for the 1971 yearbook began when the co-editors spent two weeks at Indiana University's Journalism Institute. Early in July staff members ambled down 119th Street in an all-out effort to sell advertisements to Whiting merchants. Color pictures highlighted this year's REFLECTOR for the first time. Clicking away at typewriters, creating captions and headlines, and meeting deadlines were part of the scene as a dedicated staff "got it all together."

1st Row — G. Thomas, V. Stolman. 2nd Row — C. Lepacek, M. Baker, S. Stasko, N. Wacławek, S. Mentink, Mr. Mihalo, sponsor.

3rd Row — M. Cholyte, C. Michalak, D. Ragland, N. Drewniak, S. Hart.

D. Ragland and M. Cholyte make final touches on a layout.

S. Hart, N. Drewniak, and C. Michalak proofread their work.

P. Krizo, Editor, gives the finishing touches to the TATTLER.

A seemingly inconspicuous little white box sat in study hall boasting the name TATTLER. This "suggestion box" gave the students a chance to voice their opinions and publicize their gripes along with the bi-weekly coverage of sports, social events, and unusual happenings in the school paper, the TATTLER. Staff members put Whiting in the public eye through news to Calumet region publications and channel 50. Mrs. Curtis, new sponsor, stressed accurate coverage of school activity around WHS.

C. Platek, Feature Page Editor; M. Kobli, Sports Editor.

Mike Nagy, Exchange Editor; Karen Dudzik, News Editor.

The staff proofreads their work to their utmost satisfaction.

The staff works diligently to make the newspaper a success.

The Girls' Athletic Club at Whiting High strived to promote better physical training among high school girls by combining it with the fun of competing for awards.

Mrs. Sheffer, new GAC sponsor as well as gym teacher, introduced some new ideas to revitalize the club's program. New activities such as scoot soccer and deck tennis proved to be humorous as well as fun for active participants. The traditional GAC awards banquet is annually held in May.

Candy sales finance German Club trips.

German Club members decorated a car for Homecoming.

The WHS German Club, sponsored by Mr. J. Ulrich, promoted appreciation of German culture through contrast with our surrounding society. This past fall club members went to Chicago to see the movie "Tora, Tora, Tora" with FTA members. Participants enjoyed a favorite German pastime, skiing, at a Wisconsin ski lodge. To earn club membership one must sell a certain amount of candy, wear the traditional hats with a German message, and wear a German costume of their own design for initiation.

Wearing initiation attire are John Wolfe and Karen Dudzik.

Mark Meyers does a few of his magic tricks for entertainment.

Spanish Club holds annual party

Any student who is presently enrolled in a Spanish class or who has studied two years of Spanish is eligible for membership in the Spanish Club at WHS. An annual spring assembly aims to show the "fun" side of the language and exemplify the cultural value of modern-day Spanish. The traditional Christmas party this year featured homemade tacos and a variety of talent acts. Any member has the chance to use his linguistic talents firsthand by participating in this summer's field trip to Mexico.

SPANISH CLUB OFFICERS — Kneeling: J. Furto, Vice-President; R. Simants, President. Standing: S. Yasvec, Treasurer; Mr. Taylor, Sponsor; K. McHale; Secretary.

Traditionally the club at WHS with the fewest participants, the Physics Club this year boasts 24 dues-paying members. A keen interest in science plus enrollment in advanced chemistry class are the strict requirements that keep membership low. This year the Physics Club's money-raising project was successful mainly because the idea was a novelty around town. Each member was to take an egg and sell it, door to door. All donations collected went into the Physics Club treasury for the annual banquet.

PHYSICS CLUB OFFICERS — R. Laub, Vice-President; J. Perz, Secretary and Treasurer; M. Sabol, President.

Music instills fine arts in students.

Blending and contrasting notes, sight reading music, and harmonizing voices are just a few of the lessons learned in room 24, chorus class. The hard-working girls who devoted extra time outside class strived for personal as well as group perfection, necessary to keep up the reputation of the WHS choral department. Since Miss Jakubowicz began directing groups two years ago here, Whiting has become known throughout the Calumet region for excellent presentations of enjoyable music.

Gathered around the piano, sopranos, seconds, and altos harmonize under the instruction of Miss Jakubowicz.

Girls group together to produce music.

Senior girls banded together to form an ensemble their last year at WHS. Activities for the group included entertaining at the Big Sister-Little Sister party, and filling the halls with Yuletide carols preceding the Christmas holidays.

Ever since their freshman year, the female part of the class of '72' has been traveling with Miss Jakubowicz to entertain in the Calumet region. Among the activities this year were performances for the P.T.A., Music Parents' and channel 50.

Band entertains audience with music

Rigorous practices were made a little less tedious for ambitious musicians in the newly remodeled bandroom at WHS. The results of long hours of practice could be seen during football season when the marching Oilers brightened the home field at half-time. Dedicated pep band members played a necessary part in keeping up the spirit for all home games and pep assemblies, while the concert band entertained at formal affairs with their special presentation of classical pieces.

Drama Club produces play, musical.

THESPIANS — 1st row: Miss Nicolini, Sponsor; D. Negovetich, M. Whiting, M. Groyza, P. Parks, M. Kobli, B. Corondon. 2nd row: J. Protolipac, G. Thomas, J. Wolfe, P. Huckaby, B. Adam, B.

There are no small parts, only small actors. The seed of a new philosophy of theatre was sown among Whiting Thespians by the first year director, Miss Kathy Nicolini, also acting sponsor for the WHS Drama Club 1970-71. This whole new attitude towards dramatics was reflected in subtle changes — the auditorium assuming the professional title "theatre" and a filled-to-capacity theatre arts class, which introduced voice and diction exercises. Obvious changes were financed through profits raised by the ad book for the spring musical and December dance.

The new curtains purchased and a new cyclorama enlivened the stage setting along with the reusable platforms built by the stage crew. Organization in other areas of production was managed largely by a student staff — an idea initiated just this year. Guiding the club through their first really successful year were Mark Kobli, president; Patti Parks, vice-president; Mike Groyza, treasurer; Dorothy Negovetich, secretary; and Gail Thomas, social chairman.

L. Homola, P. Huckaby, and M. Kobli are cast members of the spring play production, "Flower Drum Song."

Many students spend their free hours in volunteer service as concession workers or librarians.

Future librarians earn valuable experience by cataloging new books and reshelving borrowed ones. This year, for the first time, Whiting was represented in the State Students' Librarians Club. Senior Sheryl Mentink served as nominations chairman and junior Michelle Baker served as secretary.

Volunteers worked at concessions throughout sport seasons for points towards G.A.C. awards.

Scholarship "W's" and

Students who excel in scholastic talents are guaranteed a gift from Santa — a scholarship "W" decorating the WHS Christmas tree.

A scholarship "W" signifies that the student has completed one year of schooling with no grade lower than a "B" on his report card.

During his high school education, a student is given the opportunity to receive four scholarship "W's". Seniors who have been awarded four emblems receive the last "W" stamped on their diploma.

Oilers gain Homecoming victory

Breaking through the Homecoming hoop, Ron Hart assures a win.

On August 15th, ten seniors, seven juniors, and twelve sophomores reported for the first day of varsity football practice. Individual Oilers united to form a team, rounding up their only victory on the night of Homecoming. Senior Bill Dixon was a noteworthy versatile player throughout the season. Ron Fortner, another four-year veteran, suffered a knee injury in mid-season. Sophomore Phil Mateja's efforts earned him the title "All Conference defensive safety." Along with Mateja, Coach Zubeck expects superior performance from Frank Stasik, Jim Hapak, and Tom O'Donnell, prospective returning lettermen for next season.

Freshmen football acquires experience

With the dream of someday playing varsity spurring them on, eighteen freshman boys performed on the gridiron under the direction of Coach Klosek. For three players this dream came true when the varsity coach employed the efforts of Butch Curosh, Tom Bercik, and Pete Pavlina. Gajewski and Hart took over the leadership for the remaining season.

55-51 battle

"The Golden Age" of the Oilers' basketball season was the three consecutive victories over Hammond High, Clark, and Munster. This was brought about by the return of senior Don Etter, who was the leading rebounder and scorer. Contributing much to the success of the team were Ron Fortener and co-captain, Joe Piatek. Other influential seniors were Bob Laub, Greg Blastick, and John "Tater" Protolipac. "The success of the graduating seniors will be greater because they worked harder," — Coach Divjak.

Exercise and games part of gym program

Each freshman boy's schedule includes gym class under Mr. Zubeck, athletic director. Their rigorous program includes exercises and both major and minor sports.

Besides exercises and the girls' version of competitive sports, coordination and grace is taught through modern dance by Mrs. Sheffer, teaching her first year at WHS.

Incorporated into both programs is an attitude of good sportsmanship and "try your hardest."

Mrs. Sheffer's gym class uses ballet warm-ups to limber and relax muscles.

In 8th hour sports boys have the opportunity to learn and practice with coaches.

Calisthenics are performed before a day of gym activities.

Mr. Fritz and Don Etter help 7th grader in strenuous play.

Jerry Buksar goes for a lay-up shot as his opponent tries to block him.

B-SQUAD CHEERLEADERS: Cheryl Blastick, Sheryl Mahoney, Judy Dufallo, Bonnie Bondra.

Cheerleaders fire

Girls who represent WHS as cheerleaders are selected mainly on leadership, moral character, and enthusiastic performance. Tryouts for varsity and junior varsity are held the first week of April, and for freshmen the first week of November. This past summer 2 varsity and 2 JV squad members represented Whiting cheerleaders at the ICF cheerleaders' camp. Activities to raise money for uniforms included the sale of horoscope banks, a Christmas hop, and the cheerleaders' traditional summer dance.

Margaret Whiting practices acrobatics for her stunts.

The class of 1972 began this year with President Dorothy Negovetch, Vice President Terry Demeter, Secretary Gail Gormley, Treasurer Mary Ann Dyer, and sponsor John Sorota.

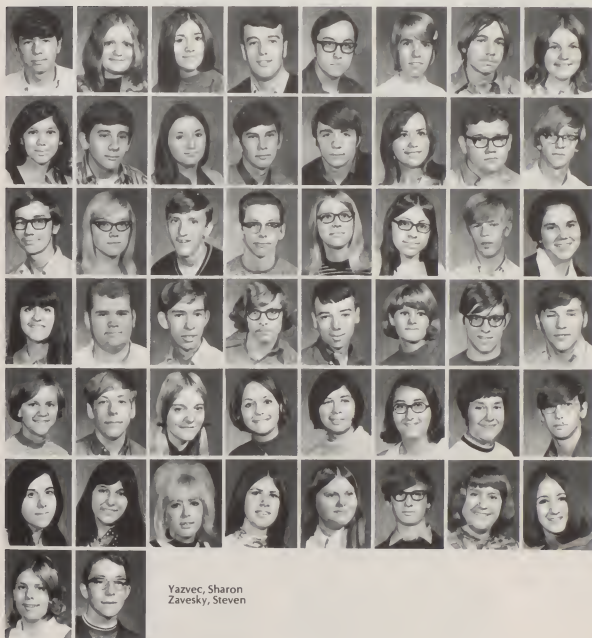

For the 1970 Homecoming the Juniors selected Gail Gormley as their attendant. She was escorted by George Laub. They eagerly worked on their float and on the attendant's car.

The Juniors are energetically working on the plans for their special project of the year, the 1971 Prom. The theme that was selected for the Prom is "Wish Upon A Star."

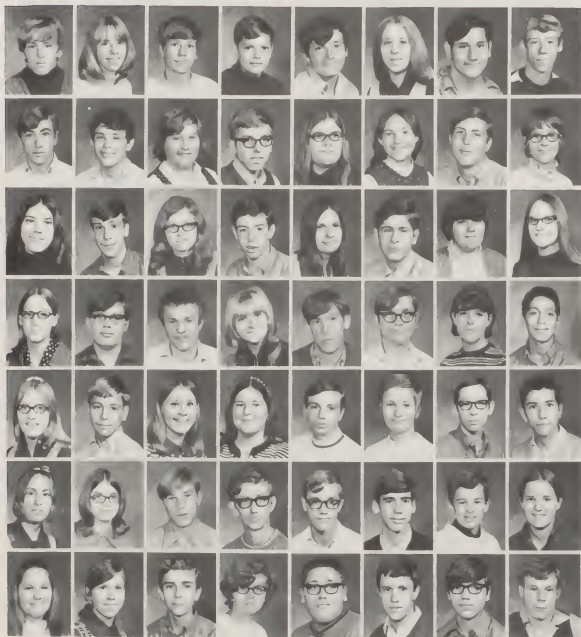

A banner announcing the Junior Attendant Gail Gormley in the Homecoming parade is followed close behind by the junior attendant car.

Members of the class of '74 show the avid school spirit which is found throughout W.H.S.

As their first homecoming approached, the Freshman class elected Sheri Weiland as their attendant. The class of '74 worked diligently on their first place car whose theme was "The Oilers will Record a Victory."

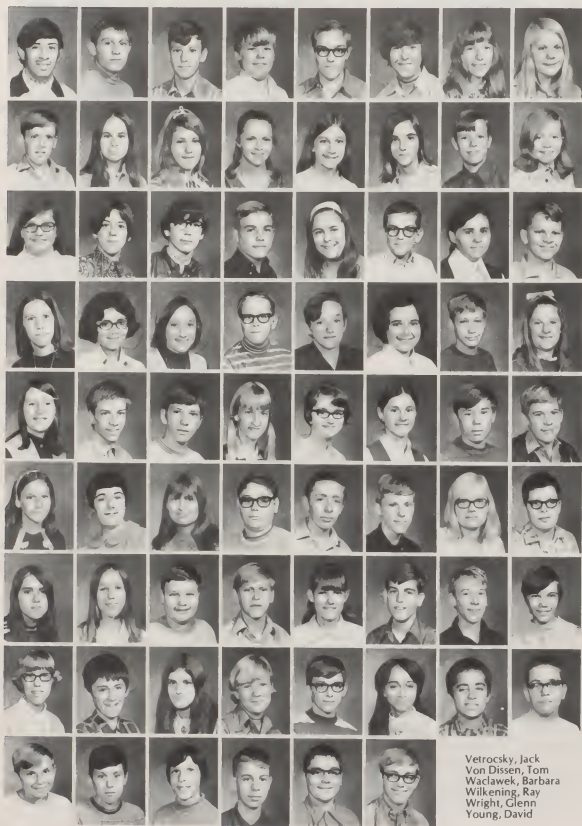

When the Freshman basketball season drew near, Betty Etter, Marie Zorich, Nancy Mohr, and Joyce Dean were selected to lead the cheers for their class.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1 million (Office for National Statistics 1999).

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the needs of older people, and the importance of the role of the family in supporting older people. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for older people, which sets out the government's commitment to older people, and the need to support families in caring for older people. The strategy also sets out the need to improve the lives of older people, and to ensure that they are able to live independently for as long as possible.
